One of these is promised for delivery today, and it is hoped that the ramainder will be ready for delivery in January and February, 1941. The engines are known as the "Class G, Sevens." the heaviest and most powerful type used by the Chesapeake and Ohlo, and especially adapted for heavy service and grades. The Chesapeake and Ohlo some time ago placed an order with the Pittsburg Pressed Steel Car Company for onchousand cars, each of 110,000 pounds carrying capacity. Of this number two hundred have been delivered, and the others are being delivered as rapidly as they can be built. These cars are of the twin drop steel gondola pattern. The tide of holiday travel is now ebbing, the home-goers being on their way back. The trains are still crowded with people, nearly all carrying bundles and packages. All these are traveling on special round trip tickets. As a railrond man expressed it yesterday, they are all traveling on passes, for they merely paid fare one way, the return trip heing practically free. All the roads have, done a large passenger business for the past week, and trains generally will be crowded until January 5th.

commend Certain Officers to

It has just been discovered that among the mass of revision bills passed by the Legislature just before the holiday recoss was one requiring that between the date of the passage of the act of January 1, 1904, each county judge shall, upon the recommendation of the Board of Supervisors of his county, appoint one surveyor and one superintendent of the poor for the county over which he presides.

The act provides further that the cir-cuit judges shall appoint these officers in November, 1907, and every fourth year thereafter, upon the recommendation of the Boards of Supervisors of the severa counties. There are only three days left in which to make the appointments, and there are likely to be some hurry calls

Streets and Printing.

Printing met at the City Hall yesterday

Printing met at the City Hall yesterday evening and transacted considerable routine business. The meeting of the latter was purely formal, and the business disposed of related mainly to the approving of bills and pay-rolls.

The meeting of the Street Committee was quite a lengthy one, and a good deal of business was transacted, though none of it was of general public interest. When the business session was over Chairman Allen made a brief but happ speech, in which he referred to the harmony prevailing in the body during the past year, and the courtesy which had always been extended him by the members, Messrs, Minor and Peters replied briefly on behalf of themselves and colleagues, and the best of feeling prevailed among all the members.

THE NEW YEAR HUNT OF

One of the most enjoyable events of the holidays will be the hunt to be given by the Deep Run Hunt Club on New Year's day. The meet will be at Chestnut Hill at 12 M., and it is expected that the hunters will reach the club house about 130 clock, where a lunch will be served to the members of the club and their guests. The pretty little club house has been decorated with evergrams and will present a beautiful sight, with the presence of fair women, the pink coats of the huntsmen and bluzing log fires.

GETTING FREE DELIVERY FOR HIS DISTRICT

Hon. J. L. Bristow. Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, has informed Hon. John Lamb of this Congressional district, that rural free delivery service has been established from Station B. Richmond, with one carrier, to commence February 1st. Last week Capitain Lamb was informed by Mr. Bristow that rural free delivery had been ordered established from Ellerson, Virginia, with one carrier, to commence February 1st.

The United States Civil Service Commission will hold an examination on January 4, 5 and 6 for the position of cadet in the revenue cutter service. The announcement from the department says:

"This examination offers an excellent opportunity for young men between the ages of 18 and 35 to enter a most desirable branch of the service. While the salary of cadet is but $500 per annum and one ration per day, cadets, after three years satisfactory service, may be commissioned by the President as licutemants. A cade, after being commissioned as a third licutemant at a salary of $1,400 per annum, is eligible for promotion through the various grades up to and including capital, the salary of which is $2500 per annum. It is understood that so far but few have signified their intention of taking the examination.

Messenger Boys' Fund.

The fund of $221.10, raised by contributions for the benefit of the striking Western Union messenger boys, has been divided among them, twenty of the lads receiving $10.67 such, and the remaining $10.07 being divided among three extra messengers. Of the total fund $18.55 was brought in by messengers Angle, and McGhee. The remainder was sent in to the office of the afterneon paper by the contributors.

TOOK THE MULE.
Mr. Scott Ratcliff, of Chesterfield, put his mule in Bowen's stable yesterday, pending his transaction of some business. Later in the afternoon a negro, with the air of authority, went into the stable, took possession of the animal, and both disappeared. When Mr. Ratcliff returned it was learned that the negro had no rights to the mule, and now the police are looking for both the negro and the mule.
